ANSWERED ON:11.12.2008
KHIJIDIA-AMRELI-VERAVAL RAILWAY STATION
Thummar Shri Virjibhai

Will the Minister of RAILWAYS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Khijidia-Amreli-Veraval Railway section on Western Railway is still deprived of modern railway facilities;

(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(c) the steps taken / being taken by the Railways for the conversion of this section into broad gauge?

Answer

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RAILWAYS (DR. R. VELU)

(a) & (b) No, Sir. All Railway Stations on this section have already been provided with adequate passenger amenities depending on the category of the stations. Further, improvement/ upgradation of passenger amenities at station is an on going process and is undertaken as and when so warranted by increase in passenger traffic and other relative priorities.

(c) Gauge conversion of this section has not been sanctioned.
